LANCASTER, KY., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 24, 1920.

NUMBER 15.

DELIGHTFUL PROGRAM Rendered At Buckeye Sunday School.

The Buckeye Sunday School observed Children's Day by giving a beautiful program Sunday afternoon. The weather was inclement, the house was full to its seating capacity, many attending from near-by towns.

The church was prettily decorated with potted plants, the pulpit being lanked with baskets and vases of cut flowers.

The children were trained by Miss Ruth I. Ray and Mrs. Nora E. Teater with Miss Allene Crutchfield furnishing the music.

The children marched in the church from either side, each line being led by two tiny girls carrying large bouquets tied with tulle.

While all the program was enjoyed, none was more enjoyed than the singing of little Gretchen Hope Sanders. Her angelic appearance with her sweet voice appealed to the entire audience.

Another pretty feature was a wand and garland flower drill given by eight young ladies. They were dressed alternately with pink and yellow overdresses, wearing rose and daisy wreaths on their heads, and carrying rose garlands and daisy wands. Their loveliness was to such an extent it had a tinge of sadness, or in other words it led ones thoughts to "The land where the flowers ever bloom."

The following program was rendered:

Opening Song—"God is Love", followed by Lord's Prayer and Doxology.

Short Welcome Address—Mrs. Nora E. Teater.

Recitation by three little girls—Sylvia McElroy, Jane Ray, Minnie Walker.

EVERYBODY Working For The Chautauqua.

Season Tickets Selling Rapidly

Everything points to the successful Chautauqua ever held in Lancaster and those who have not secured their season tickets are urged to get them at once as the amount saved in buying a season ticket is almost 50 per cent. This is a clean entertainment of the highest quality and especially appeals to those who desire to forget their troubles for a while and keep posted on the events of the day. Those with musical tastes and all with a sense of humor should not fail to support this enterprise. Everybody in Garrard County should help for the Redpath Chautauqua and help to make it a huge success by their presence every day. The ticket sellers are meeting with much encouragement and they are all full of enthusiasm over the prospect, and are determined to put over a good thing for Lancaster and Garrard county.

In addition to a band one day there will be lectures and musical entertainments pleasing to all. WE SAY AGAIN "BOOST FOR THE CHAUTAUQUA."

Found Dead.

Lennie Wood, daughter of Wes Wood, colored, was found dead in bed at the home of her father Tuesday morning. Coroner Simon Anderson held an inquest immediately and found that she came to her death from a cerebral hemorrhage and the jury returned a verdict of accordance with these facts.

Reception For Pastors.

The Lutheran Baptist church gave a delightful reception last Thursday evening in honor of their new pastor, Rev. D. F. Sebastian and Mrs. Sebastian and also in honor of Rev. and Mrs. F. L. Mitchell, their former pastor. The church was beautifully decorated with roses and ferns. A delightful program was rendered, consisting of music and short addresses. Among the speakers were Rev. W. D. Moore of Lawrenceburg and Rev. Elmore Royalty of Goshen Baptist Church. Rev. Sebastian and Mrs. Mitchell responded with short addresses. The church presented each pastor with a beautiful mahogany clock. Refreshments were served after the program.

Rev. Sebastian took charge of the church June the first and the work is moving nicely.

KENTUCKY PRESS Has Successful Meeting At Covington Last Week.

ENTERTAINED ROYALLY.

When the fifty-first annual mid-summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association came to a close last Friday evening, one of the best and most interesting meetings ever held by the association came to an end. The closing scenes were held at the Cincinnati Zoo, where the editors and their wives, sweethearts and friends, were guests of the supply houses of the Queen City.

About fifty papers were represented at the meeting which held its sessions at the Library Auditorium in Covington, the first session being held last Thursday afternoon. The meetings were presided over by its president, Hon. H. F. Forgy, of the Ashland Independent, and he made an ideal officer, in fact one of the best the association has ever had. The entire program of the meeting was interesting from the very start, each member showing more interest as the meeting progressed.

Thursday evening the press people were the guests of Hon. Richard P. Ernst, president of the Covington Industrial Club at a delightful banquet given in the dining rooms of this magnificent club.

Mr. Ernst made a delightful host, presiding at the dinner as toastmaster. Short talks being made by Mayor Gulvin, of Cincinnati, Harry Giovannoli, of the Lexington Leader and president Forgy. At this dinner the members of the club took occasion to present to Mr. Ernst, a beautiful watch fob, richly studded with diamonds, in testimony of their love for him and to show in a small measure their appreciation of him for his great work he has done for the city of Covington.

Friday at noon the members were guests of Mr. Jack Shuff at luncheon in the dining rooms of the Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati, in the skyscraper building of the Union Central Life Insurance Company. This building is thirty-four stories high and is known as the "house that Jack built". Mr. Shuff being responsible for its erection and contains some of the finest offices in the world.

The program came to a close Friday afternoon and the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: R. L. Elkin, President, W. L. Dawson, of the Lagrange Era, Vice President; J. U. Alcock of the Danville Daily Messenger, re-elected secretary and treasurer; L. S. Fitzhugh, of the Wilmore Enterprise, was elected chairman of the executive committee. This committee will be named in the next few days by the president-elect.

MAMMOTH PLANT For Extraction Of Crude Oil.

New York capitalists according to the Irvine Tribune are to erect a mammoth plant in Estill county for the purpose of extracting crude oil from the large amount of shale that is found in that locality. Garrard county abounds in this character of shale, especially in the Cartersville section of the county.

Why not have one of the extracting plants located in Garrard? In this connection The Tribune says:

"A representative of The National City Bank, of New York, spent two days this week in and around Irvine looking over the options held by John Wilcox on shale lands. After a thorough investigation of the shale he stated that within three months the starting of the buildings will be under way and that before the summer is over crude oil will be extracted from the shale in a $2,500,000 plant which will be erected just across the river from Irvine. This company has employed the best chemists to take from the samples of shale the oil and they have found that the shale will produce the crude in sufficient quantities to justify the expenditure of the above amount. In Estill field the shale is found on top, or near the top of the ground. Work of excavating for the big plant will, it is stated, begin at once or when the weather permits. Plans for the plant are nearly completed and the intentions are to place it where it will be near the center of the 2,000 acres on which Mr. Wilcox holds the options and on which the purchase price will be paid shortly."

PROPERTY VALUED AT $100,000 Stolen From Freight Cars At Danville.

Three Arrests Made—Others To Follow

Between $75,000 and $100,000 in property has been stolen from freight cars on the Southern Railway between Somerset and Lexington and Danville and Louisville during the past six months, says the Danville Daily Messenger, according to officials of the road and Boyle county officials, who have been working on the case night and day for several months. Only three arrests in connection with the robbery and sale of stolen goods have been made. Morris Pritchett was arrested about ten days ago and is now in jail here charged with robbery. He is under $1,000 bond. Letcher Saunders was arrested at Asheville, N. C., on a charge of robbery and brought back to Danville last Friday. He is being held in jail under bond of $2,000. J. E. Ashbrook was charged with having received stolen goods and was released on bond of $2,000. Other arrests it is said, will be made within the next few days.

It is reported that a gang of about twenty-five men have been robbing the cars systematically and have sold the goods to wholesale and retail merchants and individuals in Danville and many other towns in this section of the State, as well as to farmers. Cigarettes, shoes, automobile tires, silk shirts, gingham, etc., valued at thousands of dollars, are among the articles said to have been stolen.

Messrs. J. A. Coleman and J. E. Wallin, special police officers employed by the Southern Railway Company, have been working night and day for several months in an effort to secure sufficient evidence to make arrests, and now have the matter well in hand. They claim that a band composed of thirty men have been robbing the cars and selling the goods to various parties. Local county officers, including Sheriff M. J. Farris, Jr., S. G. Goode, workhouse keeper, and County Attorney Henry Jackson are assisting the railway officials in making the arrests and in investigating the matter.

Officials working on the cases have endeavored to keep the matter quiet in order to obtain all of the necessary information and evidence and to learn the names of all parties connected with the stealing as well as those who have been buying the stolen goods. However, the fact that the cars were robbed and that officers were working on the case have been generally known for several days and have caused a sensation in the community among the people. It has been almost impossible to believe that the wholesale robbing of freight cars could take place along the railroad in so many different places and the men doing the work get away with it, but, as stated above, the officers have worked slow in order to secure absolute evidence against the guilty parties and to not arrest innocent persons. Further developments are expected and will be reported from time to time.

Danger! Beware!

A woman who was too economical to subscribe for her home paper sent her little son to borrow the copy taken by her neighbor. In his haste the boy ran over a four dollar stand of bees and in ten minutes looked like a warty Summer squash. His cries reached his father, who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into it, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy and ruining a five dollar pair of pants. The old cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield and killed herself eating corn. Hearing the racket, the mother ran, upset a four gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning the whole litter. In her hurry she dropped and broke, past all hope of mending a twenty-five dollar set of false teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the spilled cream and into the parlor, ruining a twenty dollar carpet. During the excitement the eldest daughter ran away with the hired man, the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off of four fine shirts.

And all to save fifty cents!

Young Men Like Glass.

Many young men are like a piece of glass in the bright rays of the sun. If you hold the glass steady over a block of wood in the sun it will in time set the wood afire. But if you move the glass around it has no effect.

So it is with the young man. If he keeps his mind and energy centered upon the business in hand he will succeed, but if he keeps shifting it from one thing to another he will end life as a dismal failure.

It is a simple lesson that is well worth remembering.

A STUFFED SHIRT Irvin S. Cobb Says Hard- ing Never Had An Original Idea.

(Hopkinsville, New Era)

Resting between national conventions, Irvin S. Cobb is spending a few days "back home" in Paducah. Delightfully interviewed by Elliott Mitchell, of the Sun, at Will Gilbert's corner drug store, the famous humorist painted, warts and all, a vivid portrait of Warren Gamaliel Harding.

"Harding is a docile well-behaved, kindly soul who'll never rack the boat," he declared. "He's a composite picture of all the statesmen who ever lived and would do justice to any wax figure manufacturer. He's really a very handsome stuffed shirt. To the roots of his hair he resembles Henry Clay, but there the resemblance stops. If he ever finds a good dandruff cure he'll lose his political standing. Why was he nominated? Why, because he looked like he ought to be, and he's from a state that breeds a race of men that look like statesmen and run for president. He never had an original thought in his life and wouldn't know what to do with one if he had it until he had consulted Penrose. If he happened on to one he would take it before his chief and laying it at his feet would say, 'I, too, have not been idle. Here is an idea. What shall I do with it?'"

"He is smart enough to keep his mouth shut and stupid enough to make the dumbest, most non-committal speech a politician ever tried to make. But he makes it with such an air that it doesn't seem dull until you think it over and find that he didn't say a thing."

GREAT SALE Of Aberdeen-Angus Cattle.

The auction sale conducted near Danville last week by Archibald and Walker Bradshaw of their famous Aberdeen-Angus cattle was one, if not the very best sale of this character, ever held in Kentucky. Many were drawn to the sale from various parts of this state and other states as well, and the bidding was spirited.

Forty-two head were sold as advertised at an average of $702.00 a head. The top cow of the sale bringing $2825.00, while the highest and top bull calf of the sale brought $925.00.

The sale was in every way a success and Messrs Bradshaw Brothers are to be congratulated upon their good fortune.

Christian Church Notes.

Mrs. J. A. Tucker returned last Friday from Lexington where she attended the Annual School of Methods of the Christian Church for Sunday School workers. Mrs. Tucker was the representative of the local Sunday School. She made a fine record as a student, being granted a diploma on the closing night for her efficiency.

Rev. E. B. Hourland will preach the sermon at the Union Services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday night. His subject will be "The Failure of the Good Samaritan."

ANOTHER SALE Of Good Sandstone Land To Be Held July 3rd.

The thirty-seven acre farm, known as the "old J. N. Teater home place" near Buckeye, will be sold publicly on Saturday July 3rd, and from what we have heard about the fertile soil of this place it will sell readily and at a good price. The place lies within one half mile of Buckeye, right on the pike, near a good school and near a good church. The land is exceedingly fertile, having been in blue grass for forty-seven years until last year. Every foot of it tobacco land and all of it ideal building sites.

A large tobacco barn is one of the improvements and will hold four acres of tobacco. Well watered and fenced. It will be sold in four lots and then as a whole, the highest price realized being accepted.

Immediate possession of the lots will be given and possession of the land will be given January 1st, 1921. The terms are very liberal, being sold on five years time. Watch for the advertisement in the next issue of the Record and for hand bills about Saturday.

Oil Shale In Kentucky.

(From The Courier Journal)

To the Editor of the Courier Journal:

In the Literary Digest for May 22, page 35, under the caption, "Mining for Oil," President Victor C. Alderson of the Colorado School of Mines, is quoted as saying: "In the future we shall dig the most of our petroleum out of the hills in solid form." "Oil shales from which oil may be extracted by distillation, is the only great natural reservoir that can be absolutely depended upon." (Do not confound oil shale with oil sand.) "It will be the source of our oil supply for the future for it provides an almost unlimited supply of raw material. Its distribution is world-wide and its extent incalculable." Extensive deposits are found in many States of the Union; and many other countries of the world. The special reason for calling attention to the above named article is because in oil shale deposits Kentucky is one of the rich spots on the American continent. These deposits are not confined to one section of the State, but probably the most extensive body of field is to be found in Southeastern Kentucky and embraces a part of Lincoln, Garrard, Madison and Rockcastle Counties, acquiring its greatest thickness in Rockcastle County. If the distillation can be effected by electricity as the melting medium, water power can be utilized to generate electricity, thereby cheapening its manufacture. To quote further: "Beside the production of crude oil, gas and ammonium sulphate, he suggests that the nitrogen may be reclaimed in a form for use in the manufacture of munitions of war; anilin dyes and flotation oils may be obtained; possibly produce gas, a substitute for rubber and other products may become valuable."

This is an alluring field for the promoter who is able to catch the vision—work out the detail, and present it to the capitalist.

Men and Brains.

Whatever your station in the business world, it was the use of your brains that placed you there.

If you have climbed the ladder of success, you have made good use of your brains, have employed them to your advantage.

If you have slipped downward in the scale of life, you have failed to take proper advantage of the opportunities afforded you. You have held the business instinct of your brain in check. You have not permitted it to function properly.

Brains were made to use—not to abuse.

This fact should be kept well in mind by the young men of this community who are just entering the door of life's career. That career will depend upon the manner in which they employ their brains.

The enthusiasm of youth is natural and is to be expected. It is a valuable asset.

But enthusiasm should not be allowed to run its course unchecked. It should be curbed, lest it go over the brink of the commercial precipice.

The business world is full of precipices—destructive pit-falls for the feet of the impulsive and the unwary.

Our young men just entering upon their careers can not do better than to take sober counsel of himself of his position, of his hopes in life.

The bridge to success can not be crossed in a day. It is long and there are many obstructions to baffle the novice in the world affairs.

But the brains properly employed will win.

Thirty minutes at the close of business each day can do wonders. The labors of the day can be analyzed. Was each task properly performed? How could it have been improved upon?

Let the brain answer those two questions properly each day and the problem of success in life will have been solved.

The human brain is like a garden.

When cultivated it produces in abundance. If neglected it soon becomes a barren waste.

The young men of this community have brains—plenty of brains. We want to see them grow and thrive in the garden of life.

Cultivation will do it.

Neglect will not.

250 ACRES OF LAND

FOR SALE PRIVATELY BY THE UNDERSIGNED OWNER.

This farm is midway between Bryantsville and Buena Vista, Garrard County, Kentucky, 1½ miles from either.

Will sell either with or without crops and this is as good all-around farm as can be found. See the crops of tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, clover and timothy now growing and compare them with others. They speak for themselves.

The land lays as well as any land and if a man desires can have a 1½ mile track as good as the Lexington race track, and will suit any race horse man. It is just rolling enough to drain well. It has on it a fine fish lake, several cemented pools and concrete tanks all fed by never failing springs—drouth or no drouth—distributed to every part of the place, and my stock gets nothing but pure, clean, running water, worth thousands of dollars to any good farm, and I would not have one without plenty of good water.

It has also a splendid modern 8-room frame residence, 2 twelve-foot halls above and below, bath room, pantry, and large wardrobes built in each room, a good servant's room in yard, garage, smoke, poultry and ice house, a 25x25 foot barn for cows and family horses.

Also one large stock barn and 300 barrel double crib and 1200 bushel wheat granary above. One 12 acre tobacco barn and have housed from 3 to 5 acres in stock barn.

Also a nice new weather-boarded, three room cottage and necessary buildings with fine water, well located.

Would prefer selling as a whole, but is susceptible to cutting into one-half dozen farms with splendid building sites and good outlets, with water for each and will sell to suit all purchasers as to quantity and easy terms. Convenient to Graded school and all churches. I have lived here, perfectly contented, since 1863, and would not now part with this home, but for my health and age. Neither of my two daughters having married a farmer—one a doctor and the other an insurance man—and both living in the West, I feel it my duty to spend my few remaining days with them. In buying from me you will have no commissions to pay. See me at once on the premises. I mean business.

THAT INSURANCE PREMIUM.

Here's An Easy Way to Prepare to Meet the Obligations When Due.

Few are the people today who do not carry at least a small amount of insurance on their lives. The per cent of non-insured people is decreasing rapidly each year.

Because they have failed to make arrangements to pay the premiums, which fall due yearly on their insurance, a considerable number of people annually lose their policies to lapse. This means loss to them, and their families are without protection.

Practically ninety per cent of the policies which lapse are allowed to do so because the policy holder, instead of laying aside regularly a certain sum of money that will grow to be large enough in a year to pay the premium on its due date, proceeds with a sort of vague expectation of having the amount of the premium when it becomes due. In the case of the average man, the amount of the yearly premium on his insurance is not an inconsequential sum and very frequently failure to build gradually up this amount during the year by weekly or monthly laying aside a certain amount causes embarrassment.

The regular monthly or weekly purchase of Government Savings Stamps thus creating a sinking fund, as it were, for taking care of the insurance premium when it comes due each year, is meeting with much favor with persons who are following this practice. Not only do they save and have ready the amounts of their insurance premiums, but their money has been earning interest.

Another advantage of this system is the fact that the money, while it can be gotten from the post office on ten days notice, is not in a bank where it can be checked out or carried in the pockets where it can be spent at will.

Cracks at Creation.

All men are born with brains, but some haven't sense enough to use them.

Beware of the quickly made friendship. It often leads to the greatest of enemies.

Trouble with Mexico is that they are all generals and every general wants to be president.

Paper milk bottles, it seems, are not a success. There is too much danger of drinking the bottle.

It is possible, of course, that your neighbor may be full of faults but he hasn't absorbed all of your own.

No, there's not a bit of danger of men adopting feminine dress. We never could learn to button down behind.

A wise man is wise, but a wise woman is just a little wiser. Yep, we know how to stand in with the fair sex.

A woman in Washington with four children has just given birth to triplets. Her name is Mrs. Husy—and she is.

It requires an egg to hatch a bird and it takes a bird to lay an egg. Now which was the Eve of its species the egg or the bird?

If a girl can get herself engaged often enough she can annex a considerable quantity of jewelry before taking the final plunge.

Oh, yes, booze is still booze, when you can get it. But it makes a fellow mighty hozy running around in circles trying to find it.

The other fellow has a legitimate right to his own political belief, but he should keep it in subjection when it doesn't coincide with yours.

The wise young man writes his love letters on a typewriter and signs a pet name. They sound mighty mushy when read in court.

An old skinflint dropped into the office the other day, subscribed for the paper, and told us to mail him the bill. Thanks for nothing.

In Uruguay there is one automobile to every 148 persons. In this country the summer pedestrian is of the opinion that it is just the reverse.

But why all of this fuss over campaign slush funds? Can a fellow who wants to become president afford to be less of a spender than the people who elect him?

SHADE TREES LOSE THEIR LEAVES

Many Counties Report Damage to Shade Trees Due To The Eating Of Leaves By Some Insect

Lexington, Ky.—Oak, hickory and walnut trees in many localities are being defoliated. In some cases there is nothing left on the trees except small tufts of mistletoe on the topmost branches. This loss of leaves is caused by a small insect known as the brown June bug. These insects are hard to find on account of the fact that they work at night and hide in the soil in the day.

They are especially injurious to trees in sod fields that have not been plowed for a large number of years, since the young insects feed upon the roots of bluegrass. The College of Agriculture, recommends the spraying of damaged trees with an arsenate of lead at the rate of two pounds to a barrel of water, using a spray pump giving sufficient force to throw the spray over the entire tree. Unless some such method is used to control these insects, many of the trees, valuable for shade, are liable to be killed this season. Already damage has been reported from Jefferson, Clark, Fayette, Harrison and other counties which shows that this injury is more or less general. Since these insects appear periodically, it is not wise to spray the trees until evidence of their injury is found; but a thorough application of arsenate of lead as soon as the injury is discovered should control these insects.

SOUR DOCK IN BLUEGRASS

Lexington, Ky.—Farmers and others who intend to gather bluegrass seeds are urged to cut out as far as practicable all patches of sour dock in the pastures to be stripped. This weed is too prevalent in Kentucky fields, and the presence of its seeds with those of bluegrass reduces the value of the latter and when very numerous the bluegrass unusable unless great pains are taken to clean thoroughly before they are put on the market. At the seed laboratory of the Experiment Station, 1919-1920, 74 per cent of the samples of bluegrass seeds received for testing contained sour dock seed. About half of them did not meet the requirements of the Kentucky Seed Law with regard to this impurity.

It is much easier to keep the seeds out before stripping bluegrass than it is to get them out after stripping. Now is the time to do it.

The germination of Kentucky grown bluegrass seeds has been greatly improved by care in stripping and curing. Now if we get rid of sour dock, we ought to be able to compete with Missouri in the production of high-grade bluegrass seeds.

Good As Gold.

The wave of indifference and consequent immorality which has been sweeping this country has met an opposing force which is quite as powerful as its own.

Men inclined to fastness smile at the effort of the churches to curb the growing evil. Such efforts are without avail.

But in the mothers of the country they are meeting a more determined opposition, a stone wall that is difficult to scale.

Millions of good mothers are warning their daughters against having anything to do with men who "go the pace," and it is having its effects.

Little by little these men are finding themselves excluded from decent society.

Others are beginning to see the handwriting on the wall and are quietly mending their ways.

There is no grandstand play on the part of these mothers. There is no publicity to feed a silly vanity. It is a sincere and determined effort to save their daughters from a fate which the moral laxity of the times invites.

And these mothers are as good as gold.

If politics keeps on boiling over, we'll have a hellraising tailwister of a campaign before the count is over. Whoop'er up, boys.

IS HISTORY

REPEATING?

Prices During The Civil War, and For While
After Rose to Dizzy Heights Then Fell.

In a little pamphlet entitled "Historic Facts of Prosperity" published by the Curtis Publishing Company, an analysis of wholesale and retail prices and wages for the years 1860 to 1872 is given. The figure of 100 is taken as the basic level of all three in 1860. There was a gradual rise during 1861 and 1863, and at the end of the latter year wholesale prices were at 150, retail prices at 140;
and wages at 130. During the year 1864 came the sharpest rise and wholesale prices jumped to the 210 mark, reaching the peak in January, 1865. Meanwhile both retail prices and wages had taken a more gradual rise, the former standing at 165 in January and wages being at 150.

In April, 1865, the war ended and there came a sudden drop in wholesale prices, which fell to 160 in July of that year and then rallied to 180 by the end of the year. Retail prices and wages continued a steady rise throughout the year; not being affected by the end of the war and reached the respective levels of 170 and 165 at the end of 1865.

In the year following the close of the war, or 1866, there was a marked variation in the trend of the three. Wholesale prices fluctuated rather violently but with a constant downward trend, and they continued this downward course with occasional sharp rallies for seven years following the war, scoring a net loss of from five to ten points a year, until in 1872, just prior to the great panic, they were at 190 or just 50 points above the pre-war figure.

If history is repeating itself the man who denies himself luxuries now, and invests his money in U. S.
Government securities will be on a sound financial basis when the present troublesome days are over.

In looking over the political field we are considerably surprised at the number of "favorite sons" trotted out by the two great political parties. We presume they are all great men—or at least they would like to be considered great. At any rate, being a favorite son entitles one to a certain kind of distinction, and it also gets his name in the newspapers but if they are seeking newspaper publicity and political distinction, both can easily be secured. Let each favorite son go seriously to work in a conscientious effort to stabilize our unsettled conditions. If they can pull down that chestnut we are for them—all of them—for anything they want. Any one can be a favorite son, but it is going to require more than that to keep us off the rocks during the next few years.

We need a man who can reach the chestnut, regardless of what his political affiliations may be.

BOLIVER BOND on the Block.

THORNHILL WAGONS

SOME Thornhill owners constantly comment on the ease with which the wagon can be "backed up." This is due to the full circle iron. The ordinary circle is but a half circle (○). In making a sharp turn bolsters often run to the end of the track and become "derailed." Thornhills cannot do this because their track is a circle (○).

Others comment on the fact that in spite of tremendous overloads, Thornhill axles never break. The reason for this is plain. They use tough highland hickory—reinforced by a steel truss bar that extends the full length of the axle.

Still others comment that the gears never get out of line. This unusual feature is due to one of their workmen's inventions. He designed a malleable front hound plate—bolted to the gears at eight points. It's literally a jacket of iron that holds gears in line and insures light running for life.

From hilly sections come reports that the old trouble of broken king bolts is unknown among owners of Thornhill wagons. This because of a cup and saucer arrangement on the bolster that relieves the king bolt of strain.

To others the amazing feature is the long life of Thornhill beds—due to their location which gives them the pick of the yearly cutting of wood and due, in part, to the fact that they paint with pure lead and linseed oil despite its high cost.

Thousands of owners have found in Thornhills unusual strength where they are accustomed to weakness.

Let us show you this perfected wagon.

HOW TO RAISE

MONEY

On Your Liberty Bonds

Not Necessary To Part Title With Your Best Investment—Use Them as Collateral.

As a general rule it is bad business to borrow money. However, when a man needs money he might better borrow on his assets than sell them. In fact, that is just what a business man does when he needs money. He goes to the bank and pledges his properties or whatever of value he may have as collateral for a loan. Then he pays back the loan as soon as he can in order to obtain full control of his assets again.

Apparently, there are thousands of persons in America today who do not understand a simple business transaction. Having bought Liberty Bonds and later having real or fancied need of money, they sold their bonds, sometimes for less than they could have borrowed on them. They sold them at a loss.

Don't touch your Liberty Bonds if you can help it. However, if sickness or other ill luck overtakes you and you must have money go to any bank with your bonds and borrow the money on them. Don't go to a pawn broker or a bond "chuck". Liberty Bonds are sterling collateral. Any bank will lend money on them—more money in fact, than they lend on nearly any other security. You will find it no trouble at all. With Liberty Bonds in your pocket you won't have to submit to any investigation of your affairs.

Having borrowed the money, the urge will be to pay it back. Many banks permit you to cancel such a loan by installment payments. When you have paid up the loan you will get your bonds back with the interest coupons attached. In other words you will have met your obligations and still have your assets intact.

Hold your bonds. Borrow if you have to, but hold them.

Kentucky Crop Report.

With numerous reports of very short acreage, heavy abandonment, thin stand, and damage by Hessian fly, Kentucky's wheat crop now promises 5,825,000 bushels compared to a prospect early May for 6,147,000 bushels, according to the June crop report, issued jointly last week at Frankfort and Louisville by State Commissioner of Agriculture W. C. Hanna and R. E. Bryant, Kentucky field agent of the U. S. Bureau of Crop Estimates. Last year the final yield in Kentucky turned out 12,029,000 bushels while the 5-year average, 1914-18 inclusive, was 10,316,000 bushels. The greatest cut in acreage and the heaviest damage apparently occurred in Western and Southern Kentucky.

Oats are doing fine on a good acreage, except where too badly drowned out in a few places. The condition is 92 per cent of normal and the acreage about 431,000, indicating a production of about 10,700,000 bushels, compared to 9,900,000 bushels last year.

Rye shows a condition of 83 per cent of normal with about 53,000 acres in the State to be harvested for grain this indicates a production of approximately 629,000 bushels compared to 744,900 bushels last year.

Barley acreage in Kentucky this year is about 12 per cent less than in 1919, due chiefly to increased barley tobacco acreage. Practically all the barley in Kentucky is grown in the Blue Grass counties. Condition of barley is 90 per cent of normal, indicating a production of about 95,000 bushels.

Most meadows have made good growth, tho some sections are poor or very weedy, and some of the first cutting of alfalfa was damaged by rain. Condition of clover is 89 per cent, with the acreage about 12 per cent less than in 1919, due chiefly to high prices of seed and to winter-killing. Alfalfa condition is 90 per cent, due chiefly to freezing out. The acreage is about 10 per cent less than in 1919.

Apple prospects are good in most sections, the acreage being about 71 per cent of a crop. Peaches are about 78 per cent of a crop, while pears are about 63 per cent.

Pasture in most sections averages fair. All work and crops are very late. Much plowing, corn planting and tobacco setting still being done. Truck crops are growing well now, but melons were severely checked by cold, wet weather in May. Blackberries promise a bumper crop practically all over the State.

Tobacco—The first report on tobacco will be made early in July.

Notoriety seekers are generally successful. They soon become notorious.

Liniments Will Never Cure.

If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?

Do not try to rub the pain away. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and you remove the pain.

You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germs that cause the disease. S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.

Get a bottle of S. S. S., and get on the right treatment to-day. Special medical advice free. Address Medical Director, 111 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Ex-Service Men, Join the American Legion of this Post.

Your character is your own and you value it above all things. How would you like to have it besmirched and blackened in the eyes of the world? Get in the race for president of the United States. Your political enemies will convict you of every sin in the catalogue and paint you so black the darkness of night will be illuminating in comparison. If you have a mistake in life it will be pardoned for the edification of the public. If you have been circumspect your very virtues will be distorted into diabolical sins of omission and commission. For the Rule of politics, you know, is not the Golden rule.

People who smart under the lash of false charges and malicious accusations have at least one ray of comfort to cheer them through life. In death they will not be robbed of the fruits of their virtues. When St. Peter halts them at the gates he will have a record of their deeds so complete that no single incident will be omitted. Every act will be judged in fairness and without bias, and the divine spirit of benevolence will prevail over all. There will be no false charges or malicious accusations at the gates of Paradise. All who are worthy will be welcomed, and no trades or combinations will be necessary to effect an entrance.

It is possible that when we pass on to our ultimate rewards our children may inherit a better world than the one in which we are living today. The experiences in which we are passing may imbue us with knowledge and furnish us with the wisdom to apply it for the good of posterity. Having fallen into the pit-falls of life ourselves, we may have the resourcefulness to teach our children to avoid them. A man never picks up the same hot poker twice. And we of today have picked up so many, and of such varying degrees of heat, it is to be hoped there will be but few left to scorch the fingers of our offspring.

Millions of people are waiting with such patience as they can muster for the time when prices will come down. They have faith that the time will not be long deferred. But we fear they are doomed to disappointment. Before any great reduction can be expected in the retail market there must first be a readjustment of the price of labor, raw materials, etc. Can you imagine the laborer voluntarily reducing his wage, or the manufacturer his product? There is an endless amount of time before us, and much of it will be consumed before the sky loses its control of price quotations.

As The Editor Sees It.

The scarcity of news print paper is something appalling, and in another year only the Lord knows what will happen.

This news print shortage is due partly to non-production, but much of it is due to the greediness of the publishers of the big city dailies. Instead of confining their Sunday editions to reasonable size they double and treble and quadruple them in an endeavor to outdo each other.

These publishers know the conditions of the print paper market, they know that they are deliberately murdering the small city dailies and country weeklies, yet they persist in their course of ungodly selfishness.

The next time you see one of these big Sunday papers just go through it and note what it contains in order to fill up so many pages. Classify the legitimate news and matter of general information as against the slush, rot, drivel and sensationalism. You may find that matter containing a permanent value to humanity occupies only a small portion of the space.

Then remember that with their enormous circulations this profligate waste of paper is daily reducing the available supply of stock in the United States and Canada and rendering it increasingly difficult for the smaller papers to secure stock at any price.

Keep in mind the fact that the publisher of that particular Sunday daily is a veritable and insatiable news print hog, that he is devoid of the American spirit of live and let live, and that he is willing to murder the country press rather than forego a penny of his profits or reduce the size of his Sunday editions in an honest effort to conserve paper stock.

VILLA LIKED CAR HE ESCAPED IN, But gave it Back to Man He Held for Big Ran- som and Myster- iously Released.

Newspapers in every section of the country were just recounting the remarkable experiences of Fred G.
Hugo of Eagle Pass, Texas, who was kidnaped by Gen. Villa, held for $10,000 and then mysteriously released on condition that he "would keep his mouth shut", when a Detroit motor car manufacturer's representative arrived in Eagle Pass to consult his local dealer. One of the first persons the Detroitier met was Hugo himself. He found him at the dealer's place of business making inquiries about the delivery of a new car.

"You see," said Hugo, "Villa liked my car so well that he decided to keep it. I've got to have another."
And as Hugo's promise to the bandit general required him only to keep secret the time, place and conditions under which he was released, he consented to narrate some of the hitherto unpublished details of his unusual episode.

Villa and his band had finished looting the town of Musquiz, Coahuila, Mexico, when they visited the ranch of which he is manager, Hugo said. At the point of a revolver, Villa and five of his generals forced him to take the wheel of his touring car and drive them away. The federal army was in close pursuit and the bandits considered it advisable to give up their horses.

"It was rough haul," said Hugo.
"There were practically no roads; the ruts were deep, sand heavy and hills hard to climb. But through it all the car performed beautifully. I could see that Villa and the others were admiring her."

"Finally Villa said no other car had ever made that trip and wanted to know what the Dodge Brothers car sold for. I told him $1,085, f. o. b.
Detroit, which made it about $1,210 in Eagle Pass, to which Villa replied that this was a very moderate price for such a car and that he had made automobile trips in Mexico, but at no time had he been driven in a car that got along quite as well as this one."

Mr. Hugo added that the journey to the general's temporary rendezvous in the Pinar del Rio, in the state of Chihuahua, was over 150 miles of terrible roads and that the car arrived in good condition.

Several days after this interview, the Eagle Pass dealer was surprised to see Hugo again driving about in his same familiar car. He learned with equal surprise that it had been mysteriously returned, just as Hugo had been mysteriously released. Villa had sent word to him to be at an appointed place at a given time. He went and found his car awaiting him, with the rebel general's compliments.
"Over 300 miles of that wild country and running just as fine as ever; not even the D. H. monogram was scratched," smiled Mr. Hugo, the ranchman, as he posed for a photograph.

Pull Together for an American Merchant Marine

The war resulted in the creation of a great merchant marine—10,000,000 tons of American ships which cost us $3,000,000,000.

Everybody agrees that we must keep this fleet on the seas.

If we fall back to pre-war conditions—when only 9 per cent of our foreign trade was carried in American ships—We shall be in the position of a department store whose goods are delivered in its competitor's wagons.

Congress is considering legislation which will perpetuate our war-built merchant marine.

Until this is done the ships we have should not be sold to face conditions which, prior to the war, resulted in the decline of our merchant marine to insignificance.

This Committee calls attention to these facts because a right solution of our shipping problem is vital to the future prosperity of shipbuilding, but equally vital to the safety and prosperity of the nation.

STATEMENT

Of Dr. S. Earle Taylor,

General Secretary of the Interchurch World Movement, on the Relations of the Interchurch to the Presbyterians and Others

Louisville, Ky., June 11th—(Special)—Announcement that the Interchurch World Movement's executive committee has moved to meet conditions upon which the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and other denominations will continue in co-operation with the Movement was received today by G. M. Boyd, State Field Director, 101 Todd Building, from S. Earle Taylor, General Secretary of the Movement. Dr. Taylor's message said, "as a canvas is in progress to raise funds to carry on the Movement's program this year and next year, a statement correcting the erroneous impression that some of the leading denominations were withdrawing completely from the Movement is due the public."

Mr. Boyd said, "while the Movement up to the present has been conducted largely on a volunteer basis, it is exceedingly significant now to know that the supreme bodies of the Southern Presbyterians and the United Presbyterians have given unqualified approval, and that favorable action has been taken by the supreme judicatories of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Reformed Church in the United States, Friends in America, A. M. E. Zion and Methodist Protestant Churches. Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in their spring session passed a resolution favorable to the Interchurch World Movement, and recommended that the Board of Missions underwrite expenses to whatever extent it was believed the Movement would render service to the Christian Movement. The Presbyterian, U. S. A. General Assembly, the central executive body of the denomination, has also taken action severing official relations with the Movement, immediately followed that action by adopting a clause which provides for the payment of $100,000 for the Movement's reorganized program for the new year provided certain conditions were met.

"The executive committee of the Interchurch World Movement has appointed a committee to continue the plans of reorganization inaugurated by the General Committee, and has taken steps to confer with the executive committee of the Presbyterian Church with reference to the lines of re-organization which will be approved by them.

"The denominations whose representatives have endorsed conditionally or unconditionally the decision to continue the work of the Interchurch World Movement for another year or until May 15th, 1921, and the continuation of the financial campaign approximate sixty per cent of the Movement's membership. State Committees in forty-five states have given unqualified endorsement of the plan to continue another year. Many denominational leaders report that the success of their denominational campaigns would not have been possible had it not been for the impetus in surveys, publicity, and promotion given by the Interchurch."

It was also pointed out by Mr. Boyd that "this campaign is to be a quiet, personal appeal to the friends of the Movement for direct support. It is not to be a public or advertised campaign. The success of the campaign will mean the completion of the immense surveys now going on in the state of Kentucky, throughout the United States, and foreign lands."

The committee named to deal with details of meeting the wishes of the Presbyterians and other denominations which will continue co-operation under such conditions consist of Dr. J. J. Molloy, Disciples of Christ; James M. Speers, Presbyterian, U. S. A.; Prof. E. D. Burton, Northern Baptist Convention; Hubert C. Herring, Congressional; Robert E. Speer, Presbyterian, U. S. A.; J. Y. Atchison, Baptist Board of Promotion; Dr. D. D. Forsyth Mc. Episcopal Board of Home Missions Council; Dr. F. W. Pufferford, Baptist Education Society; Dr. Henry H. Meyer, Methodist Board of Sunday School Publication; Robert Wilder, Student Volunteer Movement; Frank Mason North, Chairman Federal Council of Churches and Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions, Methodist Episcopal; Dr. James I. Vance, Presbyterian, U. S.; Frederick L. Anderson, Baptist; Mrs. H. W. Peabody, Federation of Women's Boards of Foreign Missions; Mrs. Fred F. Bennett, Federation of Women's Boards of Home Missions; Dr. W. B. Anderson, United Presbyterian; and W. E. Lampe, Reformed Church in U. S.

Make Your Home a Cheerful Home

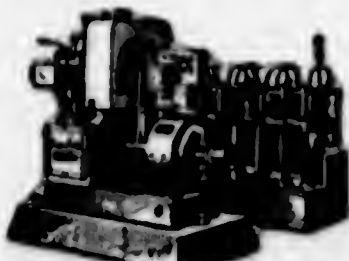

You can't expect folks to be happy and contented where the home is in half-darkness and permeated by the smell of smoky lamps. Every member of your family is entitled to all the bright electric light which city folks have. If somebody asked you to buy an expensive plant that simply furnished light and no more, you might have some good arguments against such a purchase, but when you think of a lighting plant that is also a plant capable of operating any and every small machine on your place, that is another matter.

Genco Light

is such a plant. In addition to being a perfect electric lighting plant, it has a pulley by which machines can be run while charging your batteries. When this is done, your lights cost practically nothing. Genco Light is such a positive labor saver that owners figure that this power practically takes the place of farm help. It certainly does enable the help to do more; or less help to do the same work. Genco Light is not a luxury—it is a servant that will increase production and pay for itself in actual dollars and cents. You really owe it to yourself to call here with your wife and see this wonderful plant at work. May we expect you?

At the last meeting of the Ladies Working Society a vote of thanks was offered Mr. W. T. Doolin for the splendid work done on pews and light plant. The generator which had been condemned was paid no attention to by Mr. Doolin, but he rode several miles in order to learn how to operate the plant, and if by magic the plant was soon going, which had been out of commission for more than a year. By his level business head he has saved the church and Society quite a little sum of money.

COULD HARDLY STAND ALONE

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days. I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go. I suffered awful with a pain in my back and I had the headache all the time. I just was unable to do a thing. My life was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle. I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

Methods Clean Town

PANAMA, Okla.—"Carrie Nation" tactics were employed by Mrs. T. H. Sturgeon, Oklahoma's first health inspector, when she opened her campaign against insanitary conditions here the other day.

She broke some 500 cracked dishes, burned two dozen mattresses, fifty bed comforts and cleared the town of roller towels and public drinking cups.

Four hotels patronized by transient were served with an ultimatum to clean up within forty-eight hours or close up.
